

COUNTY DIVISION A SPECIAL ORDER FOR THIS AFTERNOON

The Judiciary Committee Returns Bill Without Recommendations Which is Equal to Defeat of Measure.

(Special to the Bonanza.)
CARSON, March 2.—The bill for the division of Nye and the creation of Bullfrog county has been made a special order in the senate for 2:30 Thursday, March 4. Assemblyman Kane, of Rhyolite, says he is going to receive better treatment there than he did in the assembly, and professes to feel quite chipper today over the way the proposition looks to him at this writing, though he declines to tip off his hand. It was reported by the committee without recommendation.

There was introduced in the senate today a bill by Holmes for the relief of Mrs. Sparks, providing that she be paid the salary which the governor would have drawn had he lived to the expiration of his term. The assembly open-cut eight-hour bill was passed by the senate.

Hunter today introduced in the assembly a resolution amending the state constitution so as to change the seat of government from Carson to Goldfield, which was referred to the committee on fish and game—the stock legislative joke. At this stage of the game every act of man is traced to a motive bearing in some wise on the anti-gambling bill, and this is no exception to the general rule, though the truth of the matter more likely is that Mr. Hunter seeks to have fun with the good people of Carson, who regard with jealous eye every desire-laden look cast upon one of its state institutions; an appropriation is all same as a rich strike in a mining camp, and any curtailment in appropriations as the shutting down of mine or mill.

McCafferty introduced a bill making it all kinds of a felony for anyone connected with a bank, from janitor down to president, to accept a deposit after a bank reaches the remotest border of insolvency. This is doubtless the result of the supreme court decision of yesterday, which insures Rickey and his wrecking crew immunity.

RICKEY TELLS FEELINGS AFTER COURT DECLARES THAT HE IS INNOCENT

The Bank Wrecker is as Happy as Happy Can be—Does not Think of the Misery and Sorrow He Brought to Many Homes.

A short time after the delivery of the decision by the supreme court, T. B. Rickey was interviewed in the telegraph office where he was sending a message to his wife and family notifying them of the action taken by the court.

"Mr. Rickey, now that you have been freed from all the charges that have been lodged against you in the courts regarding the State Bank and Trust company, what have you to say?"

"I have nothing to say," he replied, "only that the result was just what I had anticipated. I knew that I had committed no crime whatever and that the final outcome would show that to be a fact."

"I had no more idea that the bank was insolvent when it closed its doors or that it would have to stay closed for more than a few days, than I had of taking poison."

"I never received a deposit in any one of the banks in my life. I felt that the bank was being conducted on a very conservative plan. The bank was making money, and if the panic had not come along we would have been all right."

"The panic came on so quickly and with such force that it was impossible to head it off. After the bank closed its doors the securities declined so rapidly that it was impossible to dispose of them as securities on which to borrow money."

"Had the depositors signed the agreement we put out to them and which we asked them to sign, the bank would have been reopened and all the creditors paid in full."

"After the indictments were found against the other directors and myself it destroyed our credit to such an extent that it was wholly impossible for us to open the bank or to do remotest border of insolvency. This is doubtless the result of the supreme court decision of yesterday, which insures Rickey and his wrecking crew immunity.

Brandon dropped in the hopper one to restrict and license glove contests, and regulating athletic associations. For a bout with four-ounce gloves and unlimited number of rounds the license fee is $1000, which is graded down according to the number of rounds and the fun afforded.

Berry introduced a resolution, the purpose of which is, by concerted action of state, national and Southern Pacific authorities, to throw open to prospectors and miners mineral lands held by the railroad company—a sort of friendly request that the thief caught with the goods should disgorge, without making a holler and disturbing the neighborhood—so to speak.

Curtin introduced the long-looked-for measure providing for the repeal of the law creating the state board of assessors. Ultimately this work will doubtless be turned over to the railroad commission. That is the program of the steering committee.

Kendall's wildcat bill reached the assembly today. Gallagher, who had introduced a similar measure, which had passed the assembly, succeeded in sidetracking Winters' railroad commission bill, which had been made the special order for 2 o'clock this afternoon and substituting the wildcat exterminator, which, after a prolonged fight, was slightly amended and passed.

All of the more important measures recommended by the governor, except the banking law, have now been drafted into bills and introduced. The banking bill will be introduced in a few days.

LEGAL BATTLE BETWEEN LAWYERS IN SAFE CASE

DISCUSSION ON POINT OF EVIDENCE TAKES UP NEARLY ENTIRE DAY.

The Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe company vs. Letson Baillet case made little progress yesterday in the district court and the close of the day's session marked the ending of a legal battle between the attorneys for both sides. But one question was asked Letson Baillet, who was on the stand, relative to the conditions under which the safe was purchased, and it was this query that caused the day's discussion. It is possible that the trial will consume several days before it is given to the jury.

NEW MANAGER AT TONOPAH-GOLDFIELD MEAT MARKET

ARRIVED IN THIS CITY YESTERDAY, BUT ONLY WEIGHS EIGHT POUNDS.

For a time yesterday at the Tonopah and Goldfield meat market the choicest of cutlets and meats were given away and all money tendered in payment was refused. Of course you could not blame L. P. Fox, the manager of the market, for his kindness in supplying the people of this city free of charge, for anyone who felt as elevated as he did would have done the same thing. A new baby boy at the Fox home was the cause of setting the market upside down and all through the day L. P. was walking on air. Mrs. Fox and baby Fox are progressing nicely. So is L. P. Fox.
